Governor Davis Proclaims Armstice Day Public Holiday in Virginia

Governor Westmoreland Davis Saturday issued a proclamation designating November 11, Armistice Day, a public holiday in Virginia. The proclamation reads:

Whereas a public observance by the people of Virginia of the anniversary of the signing of the armistice on November 11, 1918, which brought to an end hostilities in the world war, is fitting means of expressing our appreciation for the services and sacrifices of those who fought overseas for the protection of the nation and the preservation of democracy, and

Whereas, under authority of an act of the General Assembly of Virginia, approved February 20, 1918, any day which is designated by the Governor as desirable to be observed as a holiday because of conditions incident to a state of war, shall be considered as a public holiday; now

Therefore, I, Westmoreland Davis, Governor of Virginia, do designate Thursday, November 11, 1920, a public holiday to be observed as such as provided by law throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia and to be known as Armistice Day.

The ballot here given is not a copy of the official ballot. Publication of the one used in the election tomorrow is prohibited by law. This is designed to show the form of the official ballot which will be given the voter at his precinct, giving the names of the principal candidates only.

HONOR OF NATION AT STAKE SAYS COX

Asserts Voters Should Remember Pledge Given In America's Name

SEES CONTROVERSY

Says Harding Will Not Submit Peace Treaty to the Senate—Sees Danger Ahead to U. S.

Dayton, Ohio, Nov. 1.—Gov. James M. Cox, the Democratic Presidential nominee, in a statement last night asserted that the election of Senator Harding meant that the peace treaty would not be submitted to the Senate for ratification, which, he added, would result in "controversy and confusion." His visits to 36 States, the Governor declared, convinced him that the sentiment of the country favored America's entry in the League.

"The events of the campaign are so clear in their significance," said his statement, "That the voter who is conscientious rather than prejudiced senses the difference between an election result which means the certain achievement of the nation's hopes, on the one hand, and continued uncertainty and confusion on the other.

"I am in favor of going into the League; Senator Harding is in favor of staying out. I am concerned about clarification; he is concerned about rejection. These are the outstanding words of the campaign.

"Senator Harding says he will not submit the treaty of peace to the Senate as it is, but that he will change it. Since the President is without the right to make any alteration, this means that he will not submit it at all. This will result in one thing and one thing only in controversy and confusion.

"When the men and women go into the voting booth, it is their duty to remember the pledge that was given in the name of America and it is proper at this time to ask whether we are going to maintain the nation's honor.

"The happiness of our people is dependent in part upon their opportunity to labor. Therefore, our prosperity as it is to be affected in financial affairs is a vital consideration. The chaotic state of things in a part of the world cannot go on much longer without the backwash striking the very foundations of our commercial institutions. Unless we go into the League of Nations there is no guarantee against the waste of resources in the maintenance of armies and navies, and unless this waste is halted national credit overseas is out of the question.

"I have faith in the conscience of America. It has never given a pledge that it did not redeem and no great moral question has ever failed when it was submitted to the judgment of the people. If we turn our thoughts to the graves of the 81,000 brave American boys who now sleep in Europe, our souls tell us what to do. The highway of civilization is lined with the maimed and disabled. If we assemble the philanthropic heart of the world and mold it into a concrete movement of helpfulness, our duty will have been done. Otherwise, the morality of the nation has failed.

"Suffering humanity waits upon the voice of America. The verdict of November 2 means joy or despair, world-wide."

Governor Cox spent yesterday quietly resting at Triadelphia, his home near here, for the final speech of his campaign at Toledo tonight.

Members of his family were with him most of the day, but left in the afternoon he tramped alone to rough the forest. His only political conference, he said, was a brief long distance telephone talk with Chairman White at New York.

The Governor, with his party, arrived here early Saturday from Chicago where he virtually completed his campaign speaking on Saturday with several addresses to thousands of voters.

ELECTION TOMORROW.

It is regarded as more than probable that Virginia again will send a solid delegation to Congress. The long contested ninth district it is believed will be redeemed from the Republicans. Encouraging reports come from every quarter of the state that the efforts of the republicans and independents in this campaign will be of no avail.

A few dissatified democrats have been talking of cutting the ticket. However, it is thought that their number will be mighty small and have little weight as a whole when the votes are counted tomorrow night.

True to her traditions Alexandria will roll up the usual big democratic majority and reports from throughout the district indicate that a very large vote will be polled for Cox, Roosevelt and Moore. Congressman Moore will it is predicted sweep every county in the district over his opponent Dr. F. M. Brooks, republican. Mr. Moore will get the votes of most of the 6,000 women registered in this district.

Everyone in voting tomorrow should examine their ballot carefully and mark their ticket properly. A ticket marked improperlyy will be thrown out by the judges. It, therefore, behooves, everyone to make a complete study of the ticket before they vote. A dummy ballot will be found on another page of the Gazette.

The amendments for good roads and schools will be voted on. Separate ballots will be furnished the voter. These two measures are important ones to the people of Virginia and great care should be taken in voting on them.

Mr. Harding hopes to humbug some voters by saying that he is "for putting our own house in order before going abroad." It was for the sake of our own house that we joined the Allies in defeating Germany. It is for the sake of our own house that we ought to join the League of Nations and prevent another world war. And as for internal legislation, the Wilson Administration is remarkable for the amount and the value of its additions to the statue book. The Federal Reserve act ended dangers that Republicans had failed for 20 years to deal with, and legislation for the benefit of farmers and the working classes has followed that.

The Republicans are said to have taken in three and a half millions and spent five and a half millions. The Democrats haven't spent a million. Money may talk, but we do not believe it will talk more convincingly than the facts, and the facts are on the Democratic side, and we have republican evidence to prove it.

Hasson, Swan, Hayden and Wenzel showed up well in the backfield while the line of the local team led by Coach Billy Crouch showed great speed. Paper Defends Harding's Tree

Cincinnati Times-Star Nails "Lie" Connecting Name With Negro Blood.

CITES LINCOLN AFFAIR

Campaign Methods Scored In Editorial By Charles P. And Hulbert Taft

Cincinnati, Nov. 1.—The Cincinnati Times-Star Saturday published the following editorial over the signatures of Charles P. Taft, publisher and Hulbert Taft, editor.

"Fifty years ago personal scandal and whispered lies against the candidate played a considerable part in American politics. Until this year it seemed that we had been getting away from that sort of thing. The Presidential campaigns of the present century have been fought out chiefly in the open, with arguments about principles and the characters and intentions of candidates holding the center of the stage.

"This year the Democrats have tried to turn the clock back fifty years. They have attempted to revive that spirit of underhanded partisanship which was quite usual in America in the days when blackguards attacked the ancestry of the mother of Abraham Lincoln and said that Lincoln himself was illegitimate.

"Most of the energy of the underground section of the Democratic campaign has been devoted to the circulation of a lie about Harding's ancestry. No responsible Democrat has dared repeat it in the open, but many Democrats have passed it around, hand to hand. There are few voters in Hamilton County who have not run up against this sneaking propaganda in one form or another and who have not had somebody whisper in their ears in strict confidence that 'There is really something in that story about Harding.'

"The story is to the effect that Warren G. Harding's grandfather was Amos Harding and that he married Mary Ann Dixon, a negress. The story is false in every respect. it even had the wrong names for Harding's grandparents. The Senator's grandfather was not Amos, but Charles Alexander Harding, Charles Alexander Harding's wife and the grandmother of Warren G. Harding on the paternal side was Mary Ann Crawford. She was the daughter of Joshua Crawford, of Baltimore, and Sophia Stevens, whose family lived in Albemarle county, Va., The Crawfords were of Scotch-Irish descent, the family originated in Lanarkshire, Scotland. The first of the family came to America in the seventeenth century. The Crawfords appear all through the genealogies of Virginia and are related to most of the prominent families of colonial days in that State.

"There was an Amos Harding among Warren G. Harding's ancestors. He was not the Senator's grandfather however, but his great great-grandfather. The name of his wife was not Mary Ann Dixon, but Phoebe Tripp, who belonged to a well-known colonial family of Pennsylvania and was a cousin of Frances Slocum, 'The Lost Sister of Wyoming.' Amos Harding lived in the Wyoming valley, Pennsylvania, from 1777 to 1800. He came to Richland county, Ohio, early in the nineteenth century, and died there.

"As a rule Americans object to lies and particularly to that type of lie which flourishes only in the dark. Unless the character of our people has changed, they will show on election day exactly what they think of the subterranean campaign the Democrats have waged during the past three weeks. A political campaign that cannot be run in the open, free press of America, is not to the credit of any party or candidate.

"We give below Harding's family tree. It is an ancestry of which any American might be proud. We shall be glad to answer questions about any of the men or women whose names are given and are prepared to prove that there was not a drop of negro blood in any of them.

Vital Changes In School

Public School Protection League Issues Manual on Three Amendments.

A form letter has been issued by the Public School Protective League of Virginia, setting forth all the changes in the school code which will be effected by the passage of the three amendments which go before the voters November 2. The league is making an intensive campaign among both male and female voters for the passage of all three measures, which concern the admission of women to the boards of trustees, the increase of school taxes, and compulsory education of all children.

The proposed amendments are as follows:

Number 1.

For amendment to section 133 of the Constitution of Virginia, allowing women to serve as school trustees.

Strike out section 133, Article IX, which now reads:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be three trustees selected in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be not more than three trustees selected in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law. Men and women may serve as school trustees in said districts, and in cities and towns forming separate school districes.

Number 2.

For amendment to section 136 of the Constitution of Virginia, allowing an increase of local taxes for school purposes.

Strike out section 136, which now reads:

Section 136. TO THE GOOD CITIZENS OF ALEXANDRIA

(Communicated)

As descendents of New England settlers of and life long residents of the state of Ohio, and sojourners in your city of Alexandria the past two years, Mrs. Baldwin and I, the undersigned, enjoying friendly acquaintance with Senator and Mrs. Harding for nearly twenty years, feel that the good citizens of Alexandria, many of whom have suggested this endorsement on our part, are entitled to know that there is absolutely no truth in a certain malicious rumor regarding Senator Harding's ancestry in general circulation. Concerning this good citizen, he has been known and admired for twenty five years throughout Ohio.

Rich 'Potato King' Gagged, Forced To Sign $25,000 Check.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 1.—Joseph Alexander, reputed wealthy ranchman and farm owner of Fort Smith, Ark., and Mrs. Margaret Taber, of this city, wife of Alexander's ranch superintendent, Saturday related to the police how they had been kidnaped in attempt to collect $25,000 from the ranchman.

Alexander, according to advices, is known as the "potato king" in Fort Smith. He appeared at the St. Louis County courthouse early Saturday, barefooted and sparsely clad, and described to officers how he had been bound, gagged, beaten and guarded by his captors. Mrs. Taber told a similar story.

Alexander came to St. Louis last Monday and was taken to a farmhouse, about eight miles west of here. Mrs. Taber, who had been kidnaped Sunday, was brought to his room, he related, and he was ordered to sign the check payable to her. Refusing, he was beaten and the bonds on his arms and ankles tightened, he asserted. He protested that he did not have $25,000 in the bank, he continued, but the kidnapers continued torturing him, and on Tuesday he wrote the check, scribbling the signature, he said, to make it appear a forgery. He escaped later when his guard had fallen asleep.

Negro Croesus, Worth $900,000, Rides Freight.

New York, Nov. 1.—A negro Croesus came out of the West Saturday riding a freight car... His legs were surrounded by $100,000 in stocks bound to him by cloth, and his pockets held $250 in cash and an impressive bankbook.

When removed from his crude traveling berth and taken to court on a disorderly conduct charge, he described himself as Gurley Green, of Chicago, and said he expected to be a millionaire soon, telling the judge his stock holdings totaled $900,000.

Asked why he did not travel in better style, as befitted a person of wealth, he explained "there's more fun in riding freights."

Begin Right Now to Conquer Your Rheumatism

If you are going to again rely upon the liniment bottle to try to rub your Rheumatism away, you will be doomed again to nothing but disappointment. A disease that can cause so much pain and suffering is not on the surface of the skin, and cannot be rubbed away.

Many forms of Rheumatism are caused by a tiny disease germ in the blood, and in such cases the only logical treatment is to search out and remove these germs from the blood.

For this purpose there is no more satisfactory remedy than S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that has been in use for more than fifty years, and has given such general satisfaction for Rheumatism.

Port Tampa Man Says Tanlac Has Put Him in the Very Pink of Condition

"I am satisfied Tanlac is a great medicine, for I have given it a fair trial and it has proved in my case that it will do the work," declared Robert Greene, of Port Tampa, Fla.

"For ten months before I got hold of Tanlac I had been in an awful run-down condition. My nerves seemed to be on edge all the time and just kept me restless and upset. My appetite went back on me, my stomach was all out of order and several times I had acute attacks of indigestion, and my liver was sluggish. I was simply all in and just felt that I didn't have any energy left.

"One of my friends recommended Tanlac to me about a month ago, and it has done everything I expected and even more, and today I call myself in the very pink of condition. I want to be eating all the time now, and everything my appetite calls for digests properly without any bad effects at all. My nerves are good and strong and I sleep sound all night long. My strength and energy have come back and I can put in full time at work now. Tanlac has put me in fine shape and I believe it will do the same for any man that gives it a fair trial."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, jr., and Gibson Drug Store.

CALL IT BIGGEST DRY RAID

Federal Agents Get Whisky Worth $300,000 at Erie.

Erie, Pa. Nov. 1.—Whisky said to be valued at $300,000 was seized by prohibition enforcement agents here Saturday in what is declared to be the largest raid ever conducted in Erie since prohibition went into effect.

William C. Illig, of the United Drug Company, was served with a warrant charging violation of the Volstead act, following the raid, the agents said. Many saloons and wholesale concerns were included in the raid.

Supreme Court Convenes Nov. 9.

November 9 is the date fixed for the convening of the fall and winter term of the Supreme Court of Appeals. This session is expected to last until well into the spring, with intervals and recesses of a short time, when the justices will prepare the opinions in the cases argued. The docket this time is heavier than for many years and there are many cases of importance to be decided.

Among these is the celebrated Marie Marshall case, coming from the Circuit Court for James City County. This is a tax case, involving the right of the State to tax the property of an inmate of the Eastern State Hospital. The estate is in the hands of J. Fred Kernochan, of New York, the owner being a resident of this State. She has been in the hospital for years, occupies a private residence and is attended by several servants of her choosing. Her estate is said to amount to many millions, and while the estate is in New York the owner is in Virginia. The State of Virginia would get many thousands of dollars by being able to impose and collect taxes here and the city of Williamsburg would have funds enough to make improvements of a public nature that would make it easily oe of the progressive cities of the Old Dominion if allowed to collect the local tax.

Another important tax case is that of the Craddock-Terry Company, of Lynchburg, which has been fought out in the lower courts and which now comes up on appeal.

There are twenty commonwealth cases on the docket and 120 on the argument docket.

The Main Points of this Entire Sale

$25 Worth of Genuine Pathe Records FREE

1. This is a co-operative nation-wide demonstration sale of Pathe Phonographs and Pathe Records.
2. The sale is one of approximately one hundred similar sales which are planned to be held in one hundred of the principal cities of the United States, including Alexandria.
3. The plan, advertising, price of the phonographs, and general conditions of sale are identical in every city where the sale will be held.
4. The reason back of this great nation-wide demonstration campaign is to better acquaint the public with the merits of Pathe Phonographs and Pathe Records by letting the people see and hear them direct rather than to reach them indirectly through magazine advertising alone.
5. The outfit offered through this special publicity campaign consists of:
   One genuine 1921 Pathe Phonograph, regular model 10, as shown in cut.
   One Universal tone arm and sound box for playing all makes of records.
   One indestructible Pathe Sapphire Ball (full-tone), and one Pathe Sapphire Ball (half-tone), for playing Pathe Records.

WHY YOU SHOULD OWN THE JEWELED PATHE

There are five distinct and definite reasons why you should own the genuine jeweled Pathe in preference to all other phonographs. And this great nation-wide Demonstration Sale is to prove the superiority of these points, beyond the question of a doubt.

1st. Because the full, clear tone of each individually toned instrument is reproduced by the pure tone chamber and the famous Pathe Sapphire Ball. The music flows from the records. It isn't scratched off.

2nd. Because there are no needles to change on the genuine Pathe. The Sapphire Ball never wears out, neither does it wear out the records.

3rd. Because the Pathe plays all makes of records, and plays them with more natural and lifelike tone than any other Phonograph. The entire wealth of the phonograph world is available to you, if you own the Pathe.

4th. Because the Pathe is always ready to play. Just slip on a record and the Pathe is ready.

5th. Because the Pathe Controlla enables you to play any record loudly or softly with the same Sapphire Ball.

Think of it, new baked bread, cakes, cookies and pies. You can just smell them. Think of the times you robbed the cookie jar. Think what it means to know that you have a range that will give you a positive one-third to one-half fuel saving.

Cole's Sanitary Down Draft Range

It is equipped with

of combustion. This gives you a saving of one-third to one-half on your fuel. Burns the fuel gases that other makes of ranges waste and carries a broad sheet of clean flame under all six lids and entirely around the oven. This means even cooking and baking results. Even steady heat—not a flashy wasteful one. Holds fire over night. Gas tight—rust proof vitreous enameled linings. This range will outlast any range on the market and will pay for itself in fuel saved. Furnished in blue or gray enamel or plain black. A beauty from start to finish.
